Who we are

Empowering clients and partners through reliable solutions and trusted expertise.

Life insurance is unique. Our team of insurance specialists, tax experts, international professionals, key account managers and subject matter experts has over three decades of experience delivering exceptional service and support. Clients trust us to help them navigate challenges because of our track record delivering stability and navigating complex situations with clarity.

Committed to delivering innovative and customized insurance-based solutions for sophisticated individual and institutional investors.

It's all about service. We have been dedicated to making a difference and shaping the future of private placement life insurance and annuities since we were founded over 30 years ago. Our investment platform offers access to a broad base of investments from mutual funds to unique alternative asset classes. We create customized products in an efficient and transparent manner to provide for the unique needs of our clients, from tax planning, wealth preservation, and philanthropy, at the institutional or individual level, domestically and internationally.

Dedicated to progress.

Changing client challenges and market priorities require new, expanded products. We are investing in our team, technology and operations, and growing our platform of distribution partners. Elevating the customer experience remains a top priority, and we are achieving this through continuous investment in our technology, growing our product portfolio, and fostering a culture of employee engagement.
