About TPBC

TPBC is a global cross-border planning platform with more than thirty years of experience supporting families, advisors, and institutions whose lives and assets span multiple jurisdictions. Our expertise lies in navigating the complex intersection of international tax systems, regulatory frameworks, and wealth transfer strategies.

We operate through a multi-entity structure strategically positioned in the United States, Japan, and the British Virgin Islands. This unique architecture provides compliant access to global products, sophisticated planning strategies, and the regulatory navigation required for international success. Our platform delivers solutions that most single-jurisdiction firms cannot offer.

Why This Matters to Family Offices

Global families face increasing complexity as they move between tax systems, currencies, and regulatory frameworks. The challenge of coordinating strategies across borders has never been more acute, with heightened reporting requirements and evolving international standards.

U.S. and Offshore Insurance

Access to both domestic carriers and international platforms for optimal wealth protection and accumulation strategies

Private Placement Structures

Tax-efficient wrappers for alternative investments including hedge funds, private equity, and direct investments

Global Tax Alignment

Coordinated planning across multiple tax jurisdictions to minimize friction and maximize efficiency

Residency-Based Planning

Strategies that adapt to changing domicile and citizenship considerations for mobile UHNW families

Multi-Generational Wealth Strategies

Dynasty planning that spans generations and geographies with cultural sensitivity and legal precision

TPBC solves this by providing a unified cross-border execution engine that eliminates fragmentation and ensures seamless coordination across all planning domains.

Our Multi-Entity Global Structure

A unique architecture designed specifically for international planning, providing lawful access to both U.S. and offshore strategies that most firms cannot deliver.

The Ideas We Deliver

Most wealth managers cannot deliver the specialized cross-border capabilities that global families require. TPBC bridges this critical gap with a complete, end-to-end solution.

Common Barriers

U.S. Product Access for Non-U.S. Persons

Foreign nationals face significant obstacles accessing American insurance carriers and investment products

Offshore Structures for U.S.-Connected Individuals

Americans and green card holders require specialized offshore solutions that comply with U.S. reporting requirements

Cross-Border Tax and Reporting Alignment

Coordinating FATCA, CRS, and multiple tax treaty provisions requires deep technical expertise

Multi-Currency Planning

Managing assets, liabilities, and cash flows across currencies and exchange rate risk

Inheritance Planning Across Multiple Systems

Navigating conflicting succession laws, forced heirship rules, and estate tax regimes

Cultural Alignment for Clients

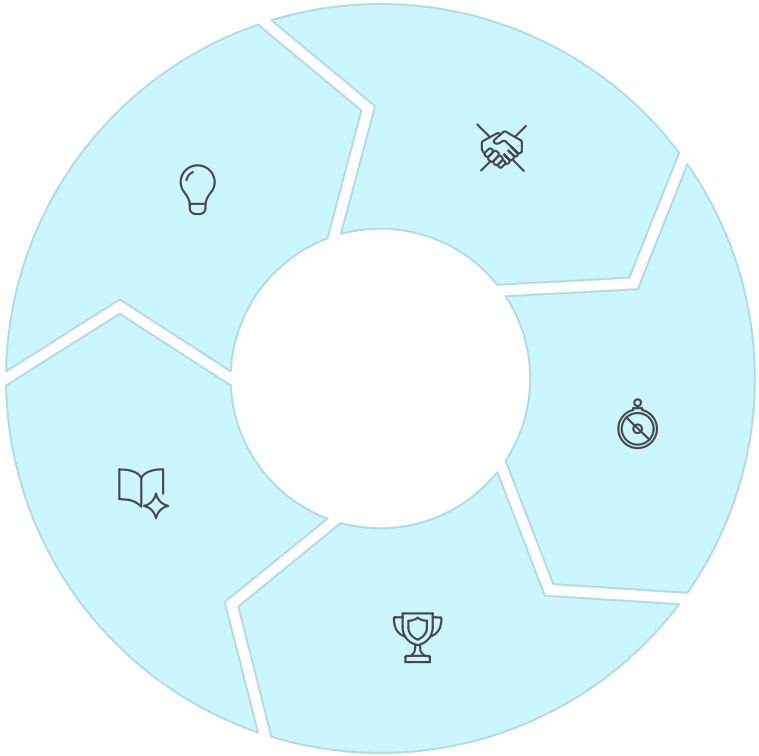
Understanding cultural nuances, communication preferences, and family governance traditions

The TPBC Partnership Flywheel

A self-reinforcing ecosystem that family offices can leverage for scalable, sophisticated global planning delivery.

Idea Center

Strategy creation, intellectual property development, and thought leadership in cross-border planning



U.S. Brokerage

Direct access to leading insurance carriers, investment products, and institutional platforms

Global Solutions Department

Regulatory navigation, compliance coordination, and cross-border structure implementation

OhanaNet

Global partner distribution model connecting advisors and family offices worldwide

Aloha Financial Advisors

Advisor training, professional development, and scalable delivery methodology

Each component strengthens the others, creating exponential value for our partners and their clients. The result is continuous innovation, expanding capabilities, and ever-improving service delivery.
